

Update - Kiine School.

We remain grateful for this donation of mathematic textbook. this help is going on a long way helping us to teacher with information close to us and things we can refer too as we have the books - so in short our work is much much easier now. thank you for what you do. helping with tools that will help to improve on how we deliver on education.

Here are pictures taken during the math lessons .. And the number of student has grown this year.

on behalf of the school

thank you
Cosmas

Update - Chiginya School.

The books are being used and we are blessed to have enough books to use during the math lesson. We thank you for this great help that will continue to remember you as we use these books books.

The pictures are taken before we went into the lesson and during the lesson..

Thank you again
Cosmas
